OBC CELL SHRI GURUGOVINDSINGHJI PATRAKARITA MAHAVIDYALAYA, NANDED

(2023-24)

Introduction: Shri Gurugovindsinghji Patrkarita Mahavidyalaya, Nanded

The Other Backward Classes (OBC) cell in an educational institution is typically established to address the needs and concerns of students belonging to the OBC category. This cell works towards ensuring equitable opportunities and representation for students from socially and educationally backward communities.

Key Objectives:

1. Promoting Inclusivity: The OBC cell aims to create an inclusive environment where students from OBC backgrounds feel welcomed and supported in their academic pursuits.
2. Socio-Economic Empowerment: It works towards the socio-economic empowerment of OBC students by providing them with access to various educational resources, scholarships, and opportunities for skill development.
3. Awareness and Sensitization: The cell organizes awareness programs and sensitization sessions to educate the broader student community about the issues faced by OBC students and to foster understanding and empathy.
4. Counseling and Guidance: OBC students may face specific challenges related to academics, career planning, or personal issues. The cell provides counseling and guidance services to address these challenges and help students navigate their academic journey successfully.
5. Facilitating Government Schemes: The OBC cell assists eligible students in availing themselves of government schemes and scholarships meant for OBC students, ensuring they benefit from available resources and support.
6. Advocacy and Representation: It represents the interests of OBC students within the institution, advocating for policies and measures that promote their welfare, rights, and interests.
7. Monitoring and Evaluation: The cell monitors the progress and performance of OBC students, identifies areas requiring improvement, and evaluates the effectiveness of interventions and support mechanisms.
